SCHOOL MISSION

Our mission is to provide an all-round education based on Christian values that nurture individual lives and build character. Embracing our philosophy of holistic education in proclamation and services, we are committed to the provision of a comprehensive range of quality education services. We believe that all students can develop to their full capacity through being nurtured morally, intellectually, physically, socially, aesthetically and spiritually.

SCHOOL MOTTO

Understanding God's teachings to become wise and intellectual (明道致知)

LANGUAGE POLICY

English is adopted as the medium of instruction in most subjects. An English-rich environment is cultivated with concerted efforts of staff communicating with students in English and daily English activities organised with the help of the Chatteris Native-speaking English Teachers and English Ambassadors. Themed English activities are also held by the English Society regularly. As well, there is a special interest class in Literature and the Debating Team led by the Native-speaking English Teacher. School notices and publications are issued in English.
